

Stuart Hyden

Chief Executive Officer

Stuart Hyden is the Founder & CEO of Fusion Logistics, Inc. an innovative national Logistics service provider offering customers an array of best in class, leveraged final-mile supply chain solutions. Under Stuart's leadership the company has grown revenues and expanded its portfolio of delivery services which include Logistics Services, Home Delivery and Multi-Vendor Services.

Prior to launching Fusion, Stuart was President of Velocity Express Franchising Group, a division he created within the parent company Velocity Express Inc. (Public). He also served as Sr. Vice President Client Services for the parent company Velocity Express which he joined through the merger of CD&L, Inc. (Public) and Velocity Express.

During his tenure at CD&L, Stuart served as EVP CD&L Logistics, a division which he launched to expand the parent company's delivery reach. Stuart also served as EVP, Sales & Marketing for the parent company CD&L, Inc.

Before joining CD&L, Stuart held senior Sales & Management positions with public companies Corporate Express Delivery Systems and US Delivery Systems (merger) where he was also involved in the consolidation of the industry through mergers & acquisitions.

Early in his career Stuart held management and sales positions at public companies CF Air, Emery Airfreight, Purolator Courier (merger) and Greyhound Bus Lines. Stuart worked in the private sector at Priority Dispatch and All Florida Messenger Delivery Service (AFMDS) holding executive level positions in both companies. AFMDS later merged with US Delivery.

Stuart has been very involved in various industry and civic organizations. Below are a few of those organizations:

- Board Member Express Carriers Association (ECA) 2002-2011
- ECA President from 2008-2011.
- Co-chair ECA Bylaws committee (2005-Current)
- Co-Founder & Co-Chair of the Carrie Ehlers Scholarship Fund (2008-current)
- Co-Founder & CEO of Big Bike Riders Children's Foundation a philanthropic Motorcycle organization

Stuart graduated Cum Laude from the University of Cincinnati with degrees in Economics & Marketing (LASS) and a minor in Marketing.